

Ladies' Dress Skirts

A New Line.

We have just opened up a new lot of Skirts at $3.50, 4.00, 5.00, 6.50, and 7.50.

Before buying you should see these Skirts.

Misses' Skirts, at $3.00, 3.50 and 4.00. Navy, Blue, Brown and Red.

Fleeced Wrappers, extra good values, at $1, 1.25, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.50 each.

PERRY & CAMP.

Telephone 9-4.

71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vt.

Oak Dressers

(Like illustration)

Solid oak, carefully made and finished, 3 drawers, 38-inch top, liberal carvings on top and glass frame mirror 20x18 French bevel, cast brass drawer pulls. In all a substantial case. Special

9.75

LADIES' DESK

(Like illustration)

A handsome and well made desk in antique and golden oak and imitation mahogany finish, shaped drawers. Good sized shelf underneath for books. French legs. A roomy draw for writing materials. Interior of desk has full number of pigeon holes handily arranged.

Special 5.75

B. W. HOOKER & CO., Barre.
CITY UNDERTAKERS

Improved Ambulance Service. Orders Promptly Attended To

TALK OF THE TOWN

Blankets advertised at Vaughan's.

Pillow shaped muffs for $1.50 each at Perry's.

Special sale of white waists at Abbott's. See them.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Dodge visited friends in Richmond yesterday.

Cash paid for watches, diamonds, gold and silver jewelry. Burr, the Jeweler.

Pure and delicious borchond candy at 20c per pound at Drown's drug store.

Try Lander's 5 cent Havana Leaf and Spotted Jacket cigars, 92 No. Main St.

Tickets at Kendrick's for the Russell H. Conwell lecture, Wednesday evening, November 3.

Frank Townsend of Seattle, Wash., is visiting at the home of his father, Charles B. Townsend.

Another large consignment of those guaranteed "Wonderhose" received at C. C. Andrews' shoe store.

The witch of Endor will meet you at the vestry door, Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening.

The Frank McWhorter Co. has the Dutchess trousers, from $1.00 to $4.00; Johnson pants, all wool, at $3.00.

Fred D. Ladd and Henry W. Knight went yesterday to Grand Isle county and before his return Mr. Ladd will buy a carload of lake apples for his store.

There will be a meeting of the Barre Citizens' band this evening at 7:30 o'clock for the annual meeting and election of officers. Every member is requested to be present.

Edwin Joseph, the 12-month-old son of Mrs. Alexander Patterson of Brooklyn street, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning of tuberculosis of the bowels. The burial was made at two o'clock this afternoon in the Catholic cemetery.

Edo Manera and Miss Ernesta Ottoloni, both of this city, were united in marriage at the city clerk's office Saturday noon by James Mackay, justice of the peace. The couple will reside in this city, where the groom is employed as a stone cutter.

E. A. Prindle, George Bond, Frank McWhorter, Fritz Jackson and B. W. Hooker returned Saturday night from a week's deer hunting trip in northern New Hampshire. Three of the party, Prindle, Jackson and Bond, were successful in bagging a deer.

A Milford, N. H., granite firm, Caron Bros., has located in Montpelier, having leased quarters in the plant of the Globe Granite company. Gasparelli Bros., formerly of Barre, started their business in the H. J. Berton plant Saturday, having eight cutters at work.

The electric car due in this city at 8 o'clock Saturday night, loaded to the doors with a crowd of Montpelier people coming to the Catholic fair, jumped the rails in making the turn near the B. B. Jackson farm and bumped along the ties for a short distance. The passengers fled out of the car and aided in getting it back onto the rails, a job of about 20 minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Cushman and child and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tanner five of the dead in the Citizens' bank fire at St. Johnsbury last Saturday, were formerly residents of this city and are quite well known here. Mr. Cushman was a brick layer in partnership with Will Avery until he went to St. Johnsbury, while Mr. Tanner was employed as a painter here until recently. Mrs. H. W. Carr of 95 Park street was a sister of Mrs. Cushman.

The Rev. H. A. Durfee, who supplied the pulpit at the Congregational church yesterday, returned this morning to his home in Burlington. The Rev. Mr. Durfee is held secretary of the State Sunday School association and at the morning service he spoke on the association's work in the state and made an appeal for funds to help carry on the work.

At the close of the service a collection was taken up for the association, which amounted to the handsome sum of $75.

The Rev. V. M. Hardy of Morrisville will supply the pulpit on next Sunday.

Barre and Montpelier granite manufacturers were considerably hit by the failure of the F. M. Pike company of Mansfield, Ohio. The firm's liabilities are said to be $7,500.25 and its assets $4,500.00. It is reported that one Montpelier dealer was about to ship a fine vault job when he heard of the financial trouble and left hurriedly for the West. He visited the man for whom the monument was built and sold it to him and saved the jobber's profit for himself, so that he made a good thing on the transaction, also on his luck of having the job in his stonewards.

There will be a meeting of Junior Order of Foresters of America this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as there is important business to be transacted.

Aceto veduto la sfilta in nostra nelle netrine del nostro negozio? La nostra commessa italiana sarà lieta di poter spiegarvi in qual modo potete diventare il fortunato possessore. The Homer Plitts Co.

The first picture dealing with the discovery of the north pole may be seen to-day at the Bijou. It shows Dr. Cook, his sturdy ship, one of his two companions and receptions in Cape.

There is no fake about the film.

The second series of dances will be given by the young ladies' drill team in Woodmen's hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. Gilbertson's best orchestra will furnish music. Admission, gents 25c, ladies 15c. Everybody invited. Dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock.

"The Princess of the Sea," one of the new pictures at Dreamland to-day, is a fairy drama of great beauty. The sea and coast and the romance of old castles is the background for a thrilling love story between a certain prince and a bewitchingly pretty princess of the sea.

Eleven deer were shipped into the city Saturday night by Barre hunters. One party of eight who hunted all the week in Rutland mountains brought back eight deer. The party consisted of J. D. Clarence, and A. F. Bartlett, C. Paloso, O. Corvetti, A. Baghini, F. Henry and G. Bottinelli. The other three deer were shot by C. Bombard in Braintree, Harley F. Cutler in Groveton and George Bond in northern New Hampshire.

The vaudeville program at the Pavilion includes three acts, all headliners, headed by the famous high class Keith stars, Corinne and Helene, perhaps the best known act that has played the Pavilion to date. John Jordan, a member of the famous flying Jordons, is also a feature of the bill, doing a flying trapeze act. When Mr. Jordan arrived this morning, he selected the highest point possible to hang his trapeze from, it being finally hung in front of the building and fastened to the peak of the building. Baker and Everett, the Hebrew and the sport, furnish the comedy.

John Conly returned Saturday night from a week's deer hunting trip near Rutland.

Victor Tary went to Rouses Point, N. Y., yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives.

New music at "Tony's" just arrived to-day. For this week only, 15c and 25c sheet music for 10c.

The Philomathian club will meet with Mrs. R. S. Currier Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. H. Burke and Miss Clara Lo-ranger left this noon for New York to visit relatives for ten days.

A musical program, refreshments and SWAPPING at the swap party, Friday evening. WATCH for further particulars.

F. A. Vennett, who has been singing in several of the moving picture theatres for the past few months, left last night for his home in Boston.

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Miss Lois McNeil, Maple Grove on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A daughter was born Saturday, October 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bassett of Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were formerly of Barre.

Humanitarians! Ghosts! and the largest Jack-o-lantern. Where? Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1. Fortunes read.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. White, Eastern avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The members are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock.

Halloween party at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1st. Everybody welcome. Lots of fun, bring your scream. Admission 5 cents.

Wood! Wood! Dry slab wood, $2.50 per run, delivered. Dry limb wood, $2.00 per run, delivered. Leave orders at 99 Washington street, Phone 138. A. W. Winch, Adm.

The Catholic fair will be continued this evening for the remainder of the prizes. There was a record breaking crowd present Saturday evening, the hall being packed with people.

There will be a meeting of Junior Order of Foresters of America this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as there is important business to be transacted.

Aceto veduto la sfilta in nostra nelle netrine del nostro negozio? La nostra commessa italiana sarà lieta di poter spiegarvi in qual modo potete diventare il fortunato possessore. The Homer Plitts Co.

The first picture dealing with the discovery of the north pole may be seen to-day at the Bijou. It shows Dr. Cook, his sturdy ship, one of his two companions and receptions in Cape.

There is no fake about the film.

The second series of dances will be given by the young ladies' drill team in Woodmen's hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. Gilbertson's best orchestra will furnish music. Admission, gents 25c, ladies 15c. Everybody invited. Dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock.

"The Princess of the Sea," one of the new pictures at Dreamland to-day, is a fairy drama of great beauty. The sea and coast and the romance of old castles is the background for a thrilling love story between a certain prince and a bewitchingly pretty princess of the sea.

Eleven deer were shipped into the city Saturday night by Barre hunters. One party of eight who hunted all the week in Rutland mountains brought back eight deer. The party consisted of J. D. Clarence, and A. F. Bartlett, C. Paloso, O. Corvetti, A. Baghini, F. Henry and G. Bottinelli. The other three deer were shot by C. Bombard in Braintree, Harley F. Cutler in Groveton and George Bond in northern New Hampshire.

The vaudeville program at the Pavilion includes three acts, all headliners, headed by the famous high class Keith stars, Corinne and Helene, perhaps the best known act that has played the Pavilion to date. John Jordan, a member of the famous flying Jordons, is also a feature of the bill, doing a flying trapeze act. When Mr. Jordan arrived this morning, he selected the highest point possible to hang his trapeze from, it being finally hung in front of the building and fastened to the peak of the building. Baker and Everett, the Hebrew and the sport, furnish the comedy.

John Conly returned Saturday night from a week's deer hunting trip near Rutland.

Victor Tary went to Rouses Point, N. Y., yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives.

New music at "Tony's" just arrived to-day. For this week only, 15c and 25c sheet music for 10c.

The Philomathian club will meet with Mrs. R. S. Currier Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. H. Burke and Miss Clara Lo-ranger left this noon for New York to visit relatives for ten days.

A musical program, refreshments and SWAPPING at the swap party, Friday evening. WATCH for further particulars.

F. A. Vennett, who has been singing in several of the moving picture theatres for the past few months, left last night for his home in Boston.

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Miss Lois McNeil, Maple Grove on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A daughter was born Saturday, October 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bassett of Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were formerly of Barre.

Humanitarians! Ghosts! and the largest Jack-o-lantern. Where? Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1. Fortunes read.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. White, Eastern avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The members are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock.

Halloween party at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1st. Everybody welcome. Lots of fun, bring your scream. Admission 5 cents.

Wood! Wood! Dry slab wood, $2.50 per run, delivered. Dry limb wood, $2.00 per run, delivered. Leave orders at 99 Washington street, Phone 138. A. W. Winch, Adm.

The Catholic fair will be continued this evening for the remainder of the prizes. There was a record breaking crowd present Saturday evening, the hall being packed with people.

There will be a meeting of Junior Order of Foresters of America this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as there is important business to be transacted.

Aceto veduto la sfilta in nostra nelle netrine del nostro negozio? La nostra commessa italiana sarà lieta di poter spiegarvi in qual modo potete diventare il fortunato possessore. The Homer Plitts Co.

The first picture dealing with the discovery of the north pole may be seen to-day at the Bijou. It shows Dr. Cook, his sturdy ship, one of his two companions and receptions in Cape.

There is no fake about the film.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Comfortables advertised at Vaughan's.

New furs and muffs just in at Perry's.

Abbott has a full line of white bear coats.

Furs. Furs that are reliable sold at Vaughan's.

Michael David went to Jonesville today on a business trip.

Arthur C. Tilden went to Northfield today on a business visit.

See the line of negligee shirts at 50c, from the Frank McWhorter Co.

Fred Langevin went to Burlington yesterday for a visit with relatives.

Men's fur-lined coats from the Frank McWhorter Co. must be just right.

Have you had that oyster stew you promised yourself at the Eagle cafe?

Mrs. J. C. Boyce went to Pittsburg, Mass., today for a visit with relatives.

Are you hard to shave? Try Miss's sanitary shop to-day and be satisfied.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr went to Randolph this morning for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Frank A. Gore went to West Fairlee to-day for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. C. A. Kent and daughter went to Bradford this morning for a visit with relatives.

John Conly returned Saturday night from a week's deer hunting trip near Rutland.

Victor Tary went to Rouses Point, N. Y., yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives.

New music at "Tony's" just arrived to-day. For this week only, 15c and 25c sheet music for 10c.

The Philomathian club will meet with Mrs. R. S. Currier Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. H. Burke and Miss Clara Lo-ranger left this noon for New York to visit relatives for ten days.

A musical program, refreshments and SWAPPING at the swap party, Friday evening. WATCH for further particulars.

F. A. Vennett, who has been singing in several of the moving picture theatres for the past few months, left last night for his home in Boston.

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Miss Lois McNeil, Maple Grove on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A daughter was born Saturday, October 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bassett of Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were formerly of Barre.

Humanitarians! Ghosts! and the largest Jack-o-lantern. Where? Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1. Fortunes read.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. White, Eastern avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The members are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock.

Halloween party at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1st. Everybody welcome. Lots of fun, bring your scream. Admission 5 cents.

Wood! Wood! Dry slab wood, $2.50 per run, delivered. Dry limb wood, $2.00 per run, delivered. Leave orders at 99 Washington street, Phone 138. A. W. Winch, Adm.

The Catholic fair will be continued this evening for the remainder of the prizes. There was a record breaking crowd present Saturday evening, the hall being packed with people.

There will be a meeting of Junior Order of Foresters of America this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as there is important business to be transacted.

Aceto veduto la sfilta in nostra nelle netrine del nostro negozio? La nostra commessa italiana sarà lieta di poter spiegarvi in qual modo potete diventare il fortunato possessore. The Homer Plitts Co.

The first picture dealing with the discovery of the north pole may be seen to-day at the Bijou. It shows Dr. Cook, his sturdy ship, one of his two companions and receptions in Cape.

There is no fake about the film.

The second series of dances will be given by the young ladies' drill team in Woodmen's hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. Gilbertson's best orchestra will furnish music. Admission, gents 25c, ladies 15c. Everybody invited. Dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock.

"The Princess of the Sea," one of the new pictures at Dreamland to-day, is a fairy drama of great beauty. The sea and coast and the romance of old castles is the background for a thrilling love story between a certain prince and a bewitchingly pretty princess of the sea.

Eleven deer were shipped into the city Saturday night by Barre hunters. One party of eight who hunted all the week in Rutland mountains brought back eight deer. The party consisted of J. D. Clarence, and A. F. Bartlett, C. Paloso, O. Corvetti, A. Baghini, F. Henry and G. Bottinelli. The other three deer were shot by C. Bombard in Braintree, Harley F. Cutler in Groveton and George Bond in northern New Hampshire.

The vaudeville program at the Pavilion includes three acts, all headliners, headed by the famous high class Keith stars, Corinne and Helene, perhaps the best known act that has played the Pavilion to date. John Jordan, a member of the famous flying Jordons, is also a feature of the bill, doing a flying trapeze act. When Mr. Jordan arrived this morning, he selected the highest point possible to hang his trapeze from, it being finally hung in front of the building and fastened to the peak of the building. Baker and Everett, the Hebrew and the sport, furnish the comedy.

John Conly returned Saturday night from a week's deer hunting trip near Rutland.

Victor Tary went to Rouses Point, N. Y., yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives.

New music at "Tony's" just arrived to-day. For this week only, 15c and 25c sheet music for 10c.

The Philomathian club will meet with Mrs. R. S. Currier Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. H. Burke and Miss Clara Lo-ranger left this noon for New York to visit relatives for ten days.

A musical program, refreshments and SWAPPING at the swap party, Friday evening. WATCH for further particulars.

F. A. Vennett, who has been singing in several of the moving picture theatres for the past few months, left last night for his home in Boston.

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Miss Lois McNeil, Maple Grove on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A daughter was born Saturday, October 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bassett of Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were formerly of Barre.

Humanitarians! Ghosts! and the largest Jack-o-lantern. Where? Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1. Fortunes read.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. White, Eastern avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The members are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock.

Halloween party at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1st. Everybody welcome. Lots of fun, bring your scream. Admission 5 cents.

Wood! Wood! Dry slab wood, $2.50 per run, delivered. Dry limb wood, $2.00 per run, delivered. Leave orders at 99 Washington street, Phone 138. A. W. Winch, Adm.

The Catholic fair will be continued this evening for the remainder of the prizes. There was a record breaking crowd present Saturday evening, the hall being packed with people.

There will be a meeting of Junior Order of Foresters of America this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as there is important business to be transacted.

Aceto veduto la sfilta in nostra nelle netrine del nostro negozio? La nostra commessa italiana sarà lieta di poter spiegarvi in qual modo potete diventare il fortunato possessore. The Homer Plitts Co.

The first picture dealing with the discovery of the north pole may be seen to-day at the Bijou. It shows Dr. Cook, his sturdy ship, one of his two companions and receptions in Cape.

There is no fake about the film.

The second series of dances will be given by the young ladies' drill team in Woodmen's hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. Gilbertson's best orchestra will furnish music. Admission, gents 25c, ladies 15c. Everybody invited. Dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock.

"The Princess of the Sea," one of the new pictures at Dreamland to-day, is a fairy drama of great beauty. The sea and coast and the romance of old castles is the background for a thrilling love story between a certain prince and a bewitchingly pretty princess of the sea.

Eleven deer were shipped into the city Saturday night by Barre hunters. One party of eight who hunted all the week in Rutland mountains brought back eight deer. The party consisted of J. D. Clarence, and A. F. Bartlett, C. Paloso, O. Corvetti, A. Baghini, F. Henry and G. Bottinelli. The other three deer were shot by C. Bombard in Braintree, Harley F. Cutler in Groveton and George Bond in northern New Hampshire.

The vaudeville program at the Pavilion includes three acts, all headliners, headed by the famous high class Keith stars, Corinne and Helene, perhaps the best known act that has played the Pavilion to date. John Jordan, a member of the famous flying Jordons, is also a feature of the bill, doing a flying trapeze act. When Mr. Jordan arrived this morning, he selected the highest point possible to hang his trapeze from, it being finally hung in front of the building and fastened to the peak of the building. Baker and Everett, the Hebrew and the sport, furnish the comedy.

John Conly returned Saturday night from a week's deer hunting trip near Rutland.

Victor Tary went to Rouses Point, N. Y., yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives.

New music at "Tony's" just arrived to-day. For this week only, 15c and 25c sheet music for 10c.

The Philomathian club will meet with Mrs. R. S. Currier Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. H. Burke and Miss Clara Lo-ranger left this noon for New York to visit relatives for ten days.

A musical program, refreshments and SWAPPING at the swap party, Friday evening. WATCH for further particulars.

F. A. Vennett, who has been singing in several of the moving picture theatres for the past few months, left last night for his home in Boston.

The Altar Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Miss Lois McNeil, Maple Grove on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A daughter was born Saturday, October 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bassett of Marshfield. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were formerly of Barre.

Humanitarians! Ghosts! and the largest Jack-o-lantern. Where? Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1. Fortunes read.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. White, Eastern avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The members are requested to meet promptly at 2 o'clock.

Halloween party at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Monday evening, November 1st. Everybody welcome. Lots of fun, bring your scream. Admission 5 cents.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

The Daylight Store

Fulfilling Our Promises

We have been promising you for the last ten days some values in Suits which we were to receive, both in Misses' and Ladies'. We have only been getting a few each day, but we have just received by express about fifty of these Suits in blue, green and black. These are long forty-two and forty-five inch Coats, with full plaited style Skirts. Our stock of White Bear Coats is now complete in all sizes, also have a full line of sizes in Cloth and Short Coats. See our values in Misses' and Junior Coats for warmth and style.

Misses' Junior suits

Among our new arrivals in Junior Suits is a line of Suits in all colors. Suit is made of a fine all wool Panama. Coat is good length and finished with a satin braided trimming, has full plaited skirt. The price is $9